A Whizzing Romance of Cup-Racing Adventure, Mystery and Love.

An Up-to-Date Story of Quick Action, Dazzling Speed and Absorbing Interest.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

CANVASS INDICATES THEY WILL PASS

HOT SENATE FIGHT OVER RACING BILLS; THOUSANDS LOST ON BEGGARMAN

McCarren and Grady Bitterly Assail MRS. M'KEE AGAIN Governor, While Both Sides Claim Victory in the War to Kill Betting on the Turf.

RACING WILL GO ON EVEN THOUGH VOTE IS AGAINST IT

State Commissioner Sanford Declares All the Sakes' Events Will Be Run Off-Hughes Fcrces Stand Firm for Reform Measures.

Intense interest was displayed by the friends and foes of the turf, the Senate chamber being thronged with spectators, while the lobbies were filled with those unable to witness the battle that was to decide the and deceiving everybody legality of betting on race-horses in this State.

BURGLAR IN HIS

SLEEP, DECISION

to continue the talk gave rise to a report that they feared defeat by the Hughes forces, and wanted time to continue their campaign.

Senator McCarren, who followed Grady, was also bitter on Hughes, and in addition scored Police Commissioner Bingham of New York.

Among those admitted to the floor of the Senate was State Racing Commis-

HELD UP TO SCORN IN DIVORCE COUR

Husband Arranged Trust to Save Her Fortune from Dissipation, Says Lawyer.

as the plaintiff alleged, and trying to being Sanford, who was trequestive consulted by different Senators outling the debate. Senator McCarrent, who with Senator Grady, was leading the fight for the race tracks, had quite a talk with Sanford. Following it, the latter said:

"Senator McCarren tells me that the Senator McCarren tells and the Senato

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 1, 1908.

Statement that Mr. McKee made no charges against his wife's honor.

Armand Dorville, assistant to Maitre Barboux counsel for Mrs. McKee, in rebuttal denied emphatically that Mrs. McKee had acted in an improper manner before her marriage to the defendant.

Armand Dorville, assistant to Maitre Barboux counsel for Mrs. McKee, in rebuttal denied emphatically that Mrs. McKee had acted in an improper manner before her marriage to the defendant.

Armand Dorville, assistant to Maitre Barboux counsel for Mrs. McKee, appeared in behalf of Col. Baxter, who is being sued by Mr. McKee because of alleged defamatory declarations made by him and published in American newspapers. M. Dorville pleaded that the French Court was not competent to assess damages for the publications alleged to have been inspired by Col. Baxter.

Beat Saloon Keeper and

Mr. Taylor said that he never lost an opportunity to impress upon Mr. Lilley that he ought to vote for submarines, and that he had shaken his fist at Mr. Lilley several times, but always in a jocular manner. He did not intimate to him that he had gone to him at the insaignation of the Electric Boat Company pany.

The Electric Boat Company, he said, had never promised him a contract if the desired legislation was secured.
Mr. Taylor said he had stated to an Associated Press representative in

Two-Year-Old Lena Lessna Runs Under Horse's Hoofs and Is Crushed.

Coroner Harburger and held in $3,000 bail to await an inquest on April 7.

PEDDLER BEATEN ALMOST TO DEATH BY YOUNG TOUGH

Experience and the properties according of the control of the cont

Was Nearly Left at the Post at Start of the Third Race, and Winner Turns Up in Workman.

P. H. SULLIVAN HAS A 50 TO 1 SHOT FINISH SECOND.

Puddin, Made a Favorite in the Fourth Race, Finished Outside the Money, This Event Being Won by Dan De Noyles at 7 to 1 in the Betting.

> BY VINCENT TREANOR. (Special to The Evening World.)

BENNINGS RACE TRACK, WASHINGTON, April 1.-The third race, scratched down to five horses, was the betting event of the day at Bennings. A tip on Beggarman that spread like a prairie fire loaded the bookmakers with money to the guards as soon as the prices were Workman, opening an even money favorite, went up to 6 to 5 before the real money showed, but when it did come in, it came in hundred dollar bills. The books didn't know which was "it," when, as if to further perplex them, the yellowbacks were distributed on Clements. Many of the wise set, including Plunger Eddie McDonald and Joe Vendig went to the latter.

the start to be dangerous. In the Belle of the Bay and the favorite, and Bay had enough. Workman then went lose call at that, for Brussel had taken Clements to the extreme outside rail SECOND RACE-Von Laer (2 to 1

Policeman Who Arrested Assist at Mr. Policeman Who Arrested Assist at Mr. Sailant Gallantly Holds off Sailant Gallantly Holds off Gang Till Reserves Come.

Thomas McAvoy, of No. 303 East One Hundred and Twentleth street, is the Hundred and Twentleth street, is the leader so the solds.

Bad Ride Lost the Race.

Fairbrother tossed the first race away on Bob Callahan, Jr. After disposing of the favorite, Greeno, at the head of the stretch, he was "walking in" at the eighth pole. Fairbrother thought he had the race won and stopped riding. Edgely shot out of the bunch behind him and overtook him, stride by stride. It was too late to get Bob Callahan, Jr. going again, and Edgely went under the wire a nose in front. Lally was third. Greeno stopped badly after leading to the stretch.

Von Laer Was the Goods. Bad Ride Lost the Race.

When the barrier was sprung, the hot tip, Beggarman, was flat-footed and almost left. McWarthy sent Worksman into the lead right away, but after the first eighth, Belle of the Bay took command and led into the stretch, Clements was never worse than third.

front, was never in trouble after Newt Fisher went down. The old horse improved like a youngster, his two races on the flat evidently having done him a lot of good. When there was no chance of getting to Grandpa, McInerney sent the favorite along and was easily second, in front of Huddy.

BENNINGS RESULTS.

was a real horse race all the way to FIRST RACE-Edgely (8 to 1 and 3 to 1) 1, Bob Callahan, Jr. (8 to 5 and was eating up ground on Workman before any one saw him. In another jump or so he would have won.

1 for place) 2, Alice Navarre 3. 1 for place) 2, Alice Navarre 3.

> THIRD RACE-Workman (6 to 5 and 2 to 5) 1, Clements (even for place) 2, Belle of the Bay 3.

> FOURTH RACE-Dan de Noyles (7 to 1 and 2 to 1) 1, Ragman (3 to 1 for place) 2. Glessner H. 3.